

The Core Values

The College identified core values on the basis of Vision, Mission and Objectives. The Core Values guide the practice of college, faculty, Staff and the students

Respect

The Adikavi, the poet of poets, of India, who gave the world the immortal epic, 'Ramayana'. Valmiki, was not always a saint, was born in a brahmin family and his name was 'Ratnakar'. He was an infamous bandit who lived in a jungle with his wife and children and no traveller who passed through the jungle was safe. If need be, he never hesitated to kill the innocent pilgrims to achieve his object.

Core values

- ❖ It is a small college situated in the tribal and backward area of Kanker district of Chhattisgarh State. Majority of students belong to either Scheduled Tribe or Scheduled Caste. 75% of students admitted belong to these communities. Government College, Bhanupratappur aims to provide qualitative value-based education and produce generation-next responsible citizen.
- ❖ To enhance the quality of the learning and teaching process at UG and PG levels.
- ❖ To bring forward the inherent talents to students and encourage creativity.
- ❖ To develop awareness to words social and environmental problems

Vision and Mission

The college mission -motto aims to impart quality education to student belonging to typically backward and Tribale areas for updating their knowledge, making them socially aware and to imbibe mortality. Institutions of higher education have a major role to play in preparing the younger generation for a propitious future. Apart from imparting quality education, they need to instil high ethical values and practices among the student fraternity.

Environmental consciousness

Awareness of public health hazards posed by our environment, including physical features such as global warming, chemical features such as automobile emissions, contaminants in drinking water, and biological features such as putrefying organic matter.

Impact of governmental policies and urbanization on degradation of the environment.

Educating the students on environmental policies to water, air, forest and wildlife of the country.

Courses to add Human Values- Syllabus: Environment (B.A., B.COM & B.Sc.)

This subject involves the awareness of environment and Public Health

At the End of the Course the Students will be able to:

- It is the paper that states the linkages between environment and health, climate change and policies of the environment.
- Better understanding of environmental problems.
- Which gives knowledge about the environment.
- Understanding the environment.
- Understanding the climate change.
- Explains about public health.
- Understand the environment and social issues of society.
- It helps the student to become socially responsible.
- Additional knowledge of Fundamental Rights and Duties too.
- Additional knowledge of centre and states relationship.
- Knowledge of the Parliamentary system and state legislative functions.

Objectives of this course are:

- To understand the difference between personality development and self-development.
- To understand the importance of goal setting, time management, interpersonal skills to build a positive personality.
- To understand the difference between ethics and ideals in life so that one can become a role model.
- How important is to be Self-Aware and have Stress management skills.
- How to stimulate creativity and what is its difference with innovation barriers.

Identity cards

Identity cards for all students will be issued soon after their admission into the College. Every student has to wear her/HIS identity card every day. This card will be valid for the period of study. Identity card is absolutely essential during the examination days and for obtaining Certificates, Library entry, etc. Students shall be allowed to enter the college gate on the display of I-Card issued by the college.

Discipline

- No student shall be allowed to enter the college after 10:30 am and leave the college before 05:30 pm. Special permission to leave the college, however, can be sought from the Principal and Student's Union-In-charge in case of any emergency.
- A student remaining absent continuously for 10 days shall be struck off the rolls. Any student found guilty of misconduct/breach of discipline shall be liable to disciplinary action.
- Indulgence in any kind of anti-social activity shall lead to the cancellation of the admission.
- Smoking on the campus is strictly prohibited.
- Students must not trespass the prohibited areas of the college.
- Writing on the classroom walls is strictly prohibited.
- All the teaching and non-teaching staff should maintain discipline in the college and be not involved in any kind of anti-government activity.
- Teaching and non-teaching staff must adopt fully transparent methods whether in teaching or administrative activities.
- The institution prohibits political activities in and around the campus.
- Strict silence must be observed in Library.
- Students are expected to spend their free time in the library. They should not loiter along the corridor or crowd along the passage.
- Talking and other disruptive behaviours are not permitted during class hours.
- Students shall do nothing either inside or outside the institution that will in any way interfere with its orderly conduct and discipline.
- The student should polite and respectful towards others, at all times.
- No student shall collect any money or contribution for picnic, trip, and educational visit to some place, get-together, study-notes, charity or any other activity without prior sanction of the HOD or Principal.
- Students should not leave their books, valuables and other belongings in the classroom.

Ragging

The college has formulated an anti-ragging committee to make the premises completely ragging free. Ragging of any kind inside/outside the college campus is prohibited. Display board about anti-ragging is placed in the campus. To safeguard the student community from the harm of ragging, every student is given awareness about the undesired outcomes of ragging and the anti-ragging act of the government. The active anti-ragging committee members educate the students the need of fine inter-personal relationships among the students. All the junior and senior students can access the Cell Phone Nos. / Land Phone Nos. of the officers for their ready reference enabling them to contact the officers in case they are subjected to ragging. They should not hesitate giving complaint verbally or in written (a complaint box is placed inside the campus), against the complaints, who may misbehave/ act in in-disciplinary manner in or outside the college campus.